

This wine was first released when 5 years old and shows considerable complexity with a good depth of spicy, nutty flavours together with the initial “forest floor” nose in the classic Burgundy style. The Waitaki grapes produce a much more European style of wine than the Central Otago grapes, which are more fruit driven.

Every vintage is different but this one has been rated the best of the last three year by regular purchasers!