Comment 2018 is another vintage that highlights the beauty of cool climate Syrah. Fresh, pure aromas of wild red berries, violets and cracked black pepper, also subtle herbal notes, thyme and lavender.

On the palate a bright, medium-weight, high energy wine with distinct Syrah-spice flavours. Sleek, elegant, gentle acidity and subtle tannins are the key features of this vibrant and expressive red that can be served at room temperature for dinner but will give equal pleasure slightly cooler at a summer BBQ.
