PINOT NOIR
MARLBOROUGH

PROVINCE RANGE

MARLBOROUGH PINOT NOIR

COLOUR/APPEARANCE

Bright deep garnet.

AROMA/BOUQUET

Ripe dark and red cherry, brambly fruits, spice and leather, with a hint of smoky oak.

PALATE

A full-bodied wine with round, mouth-filling flavours of plum, brambly fruit, dark cherry and a hint of savoury herbs. The oak integrates nicely with the fruit and the silky and linear tannin structure.

CELLARING

This wine is already drinking well, but it will continue to evolve, increasing in complexity and roundness over several years.

SUGGESTED FOODS

Venison, duck, game, roasted beetroot, rare and tender lamb, and earthy wild mushrooms.

SERVE

Cool room temperature.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Simon Waghorn', is written over a white background.
