Vineyard & Winemaking Notes

Region | Esk Valley, Hawke's Bay

Alcohol | 13 %

With fruit from both the Hillside and River flat vineyards in Esk Valley using clones; 15, 548 and 809 this Chardonnay has been both hand and machine picked. Each of these being picked and fermented separately then aged for 9 months in barrel with occasional batonnage (stirring of lees) for weight and texture. All indigenous (wild) fermentation in barrel, a mixture of 500L puncheons and barriques with 10% new French Oak.

Vegan friendly - This wine has been refined using pea and potato proteins rather than traditional animal products.

Little interference with the natural growing processes. Little handling of the delicate fruit.
